

He was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by his wounds we are healed
(Isaiah. 53:5)

For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and give his life as a ransom for many.
(Mark 10:45)

God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. (John 3:16)

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.
(Romans 5:8)

God made him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in him
(2 Corinthians 5:21)

Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people; and will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him (Heb. 9:28)

☒ He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed (Peter 2:24)

Christ died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God
(1 Peter 3:18)

This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins
(1 John 4:10)
